

Please leave the Indiana do not call list alone. I think that it is working wonderfully. It is great not to have a multitude of calls trying to sell me things. I hardly ever have to repeatedly insist that I do not want or need something to someone who has the persistence of a pit bull.